

General Rules For All Participants

- Liability Release Everyone must read and sign the release at the time they purchase and receive tickets.
- Refunds All ticket sales are final. There are no cash refunds. If you discover you are unable to attend for any reason you may transfer your registration to another dancer at no cost or request a full credit towards a future event within one calendar year. No credits will be issued for scratched entries.
- Supervision A chaperone (age 21 or older) is required to attend with each participant under the age of 18. The chaperone will be responsible for supervising the participant(s) throughout the event, on and off site.
- Disclaimer The event staff reserves the right to remove any person (or persons) who present(s) potential harm, danger or disruption to themselves or anyone around them while attending the event.
- Code of Conduct Everyone is expected to read and follow the code so we can all enjoy our experience.
- Your wristband is your ticket and must be worn at all times. Do not remove it. You will be charged full price for a replacement. Choreography competitors may have their wristband temporarily removed prior to a performance by the contest staff in the ballroom.
- Seating is open and shared for everyone except at tables identified by group names. You may sit in a chair or on the dance floor. You may not sit on the carpet or stand anywhere that blocks the view of others seated behind you. You may not “hold” shared seating by parking your stuff there. Anyone who wants a front row seat is invited to sit on the edge of the dance floor during performances.
“Sit in a chair or sit on the dance floor - Not on the carpet and don’t block the doors”
- Video recording and photography is welcome during all contests. Video recording is only restricted during the special exhibitions. No tripods or extension cords allowed in the ballroom. Good Internet etiquette requires that you get permission before publishing identifiable videos of others.
- Outside food or beverages are not allowed in the ballroom. This is a hotel regulation.
- Workshops begin on the hour. Doors close 5 minutes after the hour. Late entry is not allowed. . Teachers may elect to allow students to record a short video recap at the class conclusion for personal use.
